TO
JOHN WILSON,

The Head of the University Press, Cambridge,

BY WHOSE ACCURATE AND CRITICAL KNOWLEDGE OF THE TYPOGRAPHIC ART
I HAVE BEEN MUCH HELPED ON MANY OCCASIONS,

THIS LIST OF EARLY AMERICAN IMPRINTS IS INSCRIBED AS A MARK OF RESPECT AND ESTEEM.

EARLY AMERICAN IMPRINTS.

DURING a long period American books with early imprints have attracted much attention among bibliographers; and from time to time lists of such works, more or less complete, have been published. The most nearly full of these lists is the one issued under the editorship of our late associate, Dr. Samuel F. Haven, and brought down to the beginning of the Revolution, — which appears in the second volume of Thomas's History of Printing (pp. 309–666), published by the American Antiquarian Society. In the year 1639 the first printing-press in the English colonies was set up at Cambridge, and for more than a generation was the sole representative here of “the Art preservative of all arts.”

Under a license of the General Court, the pioneer press of Boston was established in 1675, by John Foster, a graduate of Harvard College in the Class of 1667. While yet a young man, with the encouragement of Dr. Increase Mather, he began as a printer, though he was not bred to the business, nor specially acquainted with the art. In a paper before the Historical Society, at the November meeting, 1888, I gave my reasons for supposing Foster to have been the earliest engraver in New England; and perhaps the natural connection between the arts of printing and engraving, strengthened by his own tastes, prompted him to take up the calling. (See Proceedings, second series, IV. 199–206.) He died in Dorchester, on September 9, 1681, at the early age of thirty-three, having followed the business for six years. About thirty-five of his imprints are known to be extant, and of this number the Massachusetts Historical Library owns more than two thirds.

Sometimes these early publications, either on the titlepage, in the colophon, or elsewhere, give certain facts, such as sites of shops or other buildings, advertisements of new books, &c., and thus incidentally contain items of historical interest and value, which were not at all in the minds of the writers. Side-lights of this character oftentimes clear up obscurities as fully as the direct rays of sunshine. Apart from their value to the scholar, these early imprints are much sought after by book-collectors, and they fetch high prices in the market. At the sale of the late George Livermore's library in this city, by auction, last November, a small pamphlet by John Fisk, the first minister of Chelmsford, was bought by the Lenox Library, New York, for a hundred and six dollars. The title runs as follows : —

The | Watering of | the | Olive Plant | in Christs Garden. | Or | a Short Catechism | for the first Entrance of our | Chelmesford Children : | Enlarged by | a three-fold Appendix | — | By John Fisk Pastour of the | Church of Christ at Chelmesford | in New England. | — | [Two lines from Psalms cxxviii. 3; four lines from Psalm xcii. 13, 14.] || Printed by Samuel Green at Cambridg | in New-England. 1657.

The pamphlet was printed within two years after the incorporation of the town, and was brought forth amid many difficulties and discouragements. The price given was probably equal to one half of the minister's annual salary, and the commercial value lay mainly in the fact that it is an early Cambridge imprint. The tract is very rare; and the copy, mentioned above, may be unique.

In this paper I purpose to give a list of all books, pamphlets, and broadsides, belonging to the Historical Society, which were printed in the colonies either before or during the year 1700,—with a careful collation of the same. In the list are ten or twelve titles of imperfect copies, which have hitherto escaped identification of authorship, but in most of these cases a full description has been made from copies in other libraries. The three earliest titles, here given, were printed without doubt by Stephen Daye, as he was at that period the only printer, if we except his son Matthew Daye, whose name appears in the imprint of a solitary almanac, which was published in the year 1647.

An interesting feature of several of these publications is that for some years they appear to fix the date of Commencement at Harvard College during the early history of that institution.

Cotton Mather, in his Magnalia, says in general terms that the day "was formerly the Second Tuesday in August, but since, the First Wednesday in July" (Book IV. 128). On the strength of this statement it has been supposed that Commencement, during the years 1643, 1647, and 1649, fell on August 8, August 10, and August 14, respectively, and a list of such days has been so recorded in "The New-England Historical and Genealogical Register" (XXXIII. 423) for October, 1879; and all these were Tuesdays. According to the imprints now under consideration, these days fell, severally, in October and on July 27 and July 31, which last two dates came also on a Tuesday.

Perhaps it will be of service to some future annalist to call attention here to the correct dates of two early Commencements, which differ somewhat from those found in modern accounts. Mr. Sibley, in his Harvard Graduates (I. 15), says that the first Commencement of the College came probably in October, 1642; but a careful reading of the letter printed on the next two pages of that work, shows that it took place shortly before September 26, though the exact day is uncertain. Mr. Sibley, doubtless, supposed October to be the date, as it occurred in that month during the next year. Judge Sewall, in his Diary (I. 15), records that the Commencement in 1676 came on Friday, July 28, which differs by eleven days from the date given in the Register, as quoted above.

Prince's Catalogue, mentioned in this paper, was made by that well-known antiquary, the Reverend Thomas Prince (b. 1687, d. 1758), author of "A Chronological History of New England in the Form of Annals." It is in manuscript, and belongs to the library of the Historical Society. The Catalogue consists of two parts, "New-English Books & Tracts collected by Thomas Prince of Boston N E" and "New-English Pamphlets, belonging to Thomas Prince of Boston"; and they are both bound up in the same volume.

In some instances the Library has more than one copy of these early imprints, and in such cases I have indicated the number of copies, within brackets, at the end of the title. Many of these works are not found in Dr. Haven's list of ante-Revolutionary publications.

Substantially the same account is given in the second volume (pp. 45-50) of Hazard's "Historical Collections; consisting of State Papers" (Philadelphia, 1794), and perhaps taken from a copy in the Secretary of State's Office, Boston, which was afterward printed in the ninth volume (pp. 50-56) of the "Records of the Colony of New Plymouth" (Boston, 1859), which constitutes the "Acts of the Commissioners of the United Colonies of New England" (Vol. I.); though there are many variations in minor details, particularly in the spelling of words. Hazard's version, in regard to the date, is wrong, as he gives it August 19. On the first page of the paper cover, in Governor Winthrop's handwriting, appears the heading, "relation about Narogansets & Miantinomo and the discovery of their plott ag^t the English."

This follows "Propositions," etc.

At the top of the title is written, "By President Chauncy." Mr. Prince, in his Catalogue, says that the first of these two pamphlets was printed at Cambridge. In regard to the second he writes, "Mr Allin, in y^e Title Page of his Animadversions, says twas Prin^d in Old England"; but I have inserted it as a New England title inasmuch as the catchword on the last page of "Propositions" agrees with the first word in this title. Moreover Dr. Haven, in his list, says that it was printed by S. Green at Cambridge.

The | Cause of God | and his People in New-England, | as it was | stated and disussed | in | a Sermon Preached before the Honourable General | Covrt of the Massachvsets Colony, | on the 27-day of May 1663. In the margin at the bottom of the title, in an old style of writing there appears "The first Election-Sermon that was printed." On the verso of the same leaf in another hand is the following:—

NB. I have been inform'd (by Dr C. M. who had it by Tradition) that good Mr Hig.— when appointed to preach the Elec. Ser. sought to Mr. Mitchel for Advice as to a Subject &c. & had the main Plan of the following Ser. from him. And this will receive Confirmation, if we consult Dr. I. Mather's Elijah, or Testimony to the Cause &c. where is an Extract from a M.S. of Mr Mitchel's that carries a great Affinity with this Sermon.

On the titlepage of another copy, near the bottom, appear the words, "Jn^o Payn^{es} ex dono Authoris Rev:."

Mather, in his Magnalia (Book III. p. 56), says: "There is likewise published, A Discourse about Civil Government, in a New Plantation, whose Design is Religion: In the Title-Page whereof, the Name of Mr. Cotton, is, by a Mistake, put for that of Mr. Davenport." On the back of the title is written in the handwriting of Mr. Sparks: "This Tract was written by Davenport. See Professor Kingsley's Hist. Discourse, p. 83, where he quotes Cotton Mather." Underneath is the following in the hand of Mr. Felt: "Still this work is answer to another on the same subject. The latter appears to have been written by John Cotton."

This has neither titlepage in English, nor dedication to the King. On a fly-leaf at the beginning is written "Enoch Greenlefe His Booke 1672."

VVame | Ketꝛhomaꝛ uketꝛhomaꝛgash | David. No titlepage. 12mo pp. (100).

Psalms of David in metre, in two columns; catchword "Nꝛwomꝛ" on the last page; followed by rules for holy living, in Indian.

The titlepages of these two pamphlets are apparently identical, but for all the other pages the type was set up a second time. See a note, signed "S. A. G.," which appears in "The New-England Historical & Genealogical Register" (XXV. 91) for January, 1871 ; Sibley's Harvard Graduates (I. 206, 207) ; and also the Bulletin of the Boston Public Library (IV. 304) for January, 1881. This sermon (p. 16 ; second edition, p. 19) contains the noted line, "God sifted a whole Nation that he might send choice Grain over into this Wilderness."

Across the middle of the titlepage is written, "Jo. Bailly's Booke. Boston in N. E. March 5. 8 $\frac{4}{5}$."

Dr. Haven says that this pamphlet was printed at Cambridge, and he refers the date of publication to the year 1670. Prince says: "M^r B Green tells me, This was Printed at Cambridge by his Father's Letter, before He can Remember: He supposes between 1672 & 1680." The word "Letter" is used here in the sense of type.

note: —

NEWTONVILL, MASS., Feb. 7, 1895

Dr. SAMUEL A. GREEN, Librarian.

DEAR SIR, — The few short-hand characters at the end of the Election Sermon, May, 1671, which you pointed out to me, have defied my efforts to decipher them.

There is apparently a date, viz., "29 5. 67:" also "1692" or "1672."
These with a few words in short-hand characters are surrounded by a dark line. Against this is written "N. Chap:" followed by a few characters.
I have tried all the systems of short-hand writing with which I am acquainted, but can make no sense of it.

I think this is the first time I have ever totally failed to find some clue to a short-hand manuscript. If there was more of it, I might have a better chance.

Very truly yours,

WILLIAM P. UPHAM

A copy of the proclamation in fac-simile, reduced in size, appears in "A Choral Service for Thanksgiving" (Boston, 1891), published by the Congregational Sunday School and Publishing Society, but differs in details from the original, as the photograph from which it was made had been retouched. Another copy, in exact fac-simile, is given in the Rev. William DeLoss Love's "Fast and Thanksgiving Days of New England," just published, where the author says that it is "the earliest thanksgiving broadside known" (p. 200).

Mr. Sibley, in his Harvard Graduates (I. 61), says that the initials "J. S." stand probably for Jeremiah Shepard, a graduate in the Class of 1669; and some years ago (November, 1888), in some remarks before this Society on John Foster's Map of New England (Proc. 2d series, IV. 199), I followed Mr. Sibley's supposition. Recently I have seen a copy of this edition of the Narrative belonging to Mr. Sumner Hollingsworth, of Boston, which contains many interesting notes in the handwriting of the Rev. Edward Taylor, and a letter from him, dated at "West-field 15th 8^m 1679." In one of these notes it is said that the initials "J. S." stand for "John Sherman doubtless." As both Hubbard and Taylor were graduates of the College, and both were ministers, they undoubtedly knew each other well; and for that reason I incline to the opinion that Sherman was the writer of the verses. The letter mentioned above is addressed to "Reverend & Honrd Mr. S^t Nicholas, together with my Honrd & Revrd Master Mr. Loseby"; and there is some reason to think that these two persons were the Regicides then at Hadley. Mr. Hollingsworth has in his library two copies of the London edition of the Narrative, which vary in some slight details.

For an account of the "Wine Hills" map which appeared in the Boston edition, see Proceedings (2d series, IV. 199), and for one of the "White Hills" map (VI. 41). It is probable that the map in the London edition was placed at the beginning of the book.

In the upper margin, at the beginning of the preface, is written "Samuel Checkley His Booke." In the upper right-hand corner is also written "N. Clap. 26. 12. [] Boug[ht] at M[r.] Brun- n[ing]." The name "N. Clap," referred to by Mr. Upham in his note on page 27 is written in the same hand. Singularly enough a signature leaf "D d 4," headed "Chap: V, VI," and identical with that of the first edition (1661), is bound up at the right place (in Acts) in the book, which is complete without it. The mistake was made originally when the book- binder gathered the signatures.

On the blank space underneath is written, “The last half Sheet was Printed wth my Letters [or type], at Boston. S. S.” At that time Judge Sewall had the official management of the printing-press in Boston, regularly licensed by the General Court, and no one else was allowed to interfere with him without a “like liberty first granted.” As he was not brought up to the trade, Samuel Green, Jr. (a practical printer), had charge of the business. The last four leaves of the Almanac, or half signature, are in different type, which explains Sewall’s memorandum. Under a misapprehension of the facts, the Committee of Publication for Sewall’s Diary have referred this manuscript entry, — as printed by them in the first volume (p. 50) of the Diary, — to the Almanac which immediately follows in the small volume.

In the lower margin of the titlepage appear the words: "Ex dono Authoris Jan^y 30. 1681"; and the almanac also contains manuscript notes by Judge Sewall.

See Calef's "More Wonders of the Invisible World" (London, 1700), page 38; and also "The Congregational Quarterly" (XI. 400-415) for July, 1869, where a reprint of the pamphlet is given. It has been supposed that "S. & B." who carry on the Dialogue were intended for Stoughton and Brattle, or perhaps for Salem and Boston; and the initials "P. E. and J. A." were probably used to mislead the reader in regard to the authorship.

The Bay Psalm Book (Cambridge, 1640), the first volume printed in the Colonies, was the original version of this collection of Psalms and Hymns. It passed through very many editions from time to time, more or less changed and amended in phraseology: and for a long period was used by the churches in New England, and even in old England and Scotland. The Society owns a copy of the reprint (Cambridge, 1862) in facsimile of the original edition, where in the introduction a bibliographical account of the book is given. The editor of the reprint was our late associate Dr. Nathaniel B. Shurtleff, a former Librarian of this Society, who was fortunate enough to possess one of the few copies of the original edition. See Proceedings [XV. 11] for October, 1876.

 "It is not unlikely that it [Dudley's letter, pp. 7-27] was printed at the suggestion of Joshua Scottow, who seems to have been the earliest person in the Colony who had an antiquarian turn of mind." This was the first appearance in print of the letter, which has been republished in the Collections (VIII. 36-47).

 Mather's "Great Examples of Judgment and Mercy," which "will be speedily Published," "Printed for & Sold by Joseph Wheeler, at his Shop at the head of the Dock in Boston, Price stitch't 8d." Underneath is the following paragraph: —

*There are Two Fairs to be Held in the Town of Boston Annu- | ally, one on the last Tuesday in May, the other on the last Tuesday | in Octob. each
 Fair to continue four days: Also Two Fairs to be | Held at Providence
 Yearly, the second Wednesday of June, & first | Wednesday of Octob. each to continue three days."*

Mr. Sibley gives the year of publication of Mather's "Great Examples" as 1696, though it is advertised in this Almanac for 1697 to "be speedily Published." The explanation, doubtless, lies in the fact that the almanac was put to press in 1696.

Titlepage, surrounded by a border line, verso blank; 3-6, "To the | Reader," signed "Samuel Willard"; 7-652, "The Truly | Blessed Man : | Or. the Way to be | Happy here, and for ever"; list of "Errata" at the end of page 652, ten lines; 3 pp. "The | Contents | of the principal matters, Contained in the | foregoing Treatise"; last page blank.

One copy has at the beginning, opposite to the titlepage, Judge Sewall's leaflet mentioned below:—

Upon Mr. Samuel Willard, his first | coming into the Assembly, and Praying, | after a long and dangerous Fit of | Sickness; November 21. 1700. at | 3. in the Afternoon, being a Day of | Publick Thanksgiving. | Mr. Pemberton's Text, Psal. 118. 27. 16mo. 1 p.

These verses in three stanzas were written by Judge Sewall, who mentions them in his Diary under the same date, where he gives the first two. In the upper margin are written two lines, "Donum Sam^l. Sewal Esq." in one hand, and "To Ann Winthrop" in another. The leaflet is pasted into a copy of Willard's "The Truly Blessed Man," between the fly-leaf and the titlepage. Prince says that this was "Print^d at Boston. 1700."

By the Reverend Mr. | Increase Mather, in his Book Entituled, | The Order of the Gospel: Printed in the | year, 1700. Beginning at Page 23. to 29. | — | Reprinted for Publick Good. 16mo. pp. (1), 28. [Three copies.]

Titlepage, surrounded by two border lines, verso blank: 1-19, "A | Vindication | of the | Divine Authority of Ruling Elders. &c. | In Answer to an Objection"; 20, 21, "An Article. Agreed upon by the Elders | and Messengers of the Churches, | Assembled in the Synod, at Boston | in New-England, Sept. 10th. 1679"; 22-28, "Question"; last leaf of signature "C" wanting.

A Warning to the | Flocks | against | Wolves in Sheeps Cloathing. | Or, | A Faithful Advice, from several | Ministers of the Gospel, in and | near Boston, unto the Churches | of New-England, relating to the | Dangers that may arise from | Impostors, | Pretending to be Ministers. | With | a Brief History of some Impostors, | Remarkably and Seasonably detected; | Written, by One of the Ministers in Boston, | to assert that Advice and prevent future Mischiefs. || Boston, Printed for the Booksellers. 1700. 16mo. pp. 3-79.

Titlepage, wanting; 3-10, "A Faithful Advice, | from | Several Ministers of the Gospel, | in and near Boston, unto the Churches | of New-England; relating to the | Dangers that may arise from Impostors, | pretending to be Ministers," signed "Increase Mather | James Allen | Samuel Willard | Moses Fiske | Benjamin Woodbridge | Nehemiah Hobart | John Danforth | Cotton Mather | Nehemiah Walter | Jonathan Pierpont | Joseph Beleher | Benjamin Wadsworth | Benjamin Coleman," and dated at "Boston, Decemb-28. 1699"; 11-28, "An History. of Some | Impostors, | Remarkably and Seasonably detected, in | the Churches of New-England; Written | to maintain the Advice Published by | some of the Pastors in those Churches | relating to Impostures, and prevent all | future Mischiefs from them"; 29-52,

"Boston, 25 d. | 10 m. 1699. | A Letter, | containing a Remarkable History, | of an | Imposter," signed "Cotton Mather"; 53, "Postscript"; 54-79, "Something to be known, | by all the Churches. | — | Or, | Short Remarks upon the Remarkable | Dispensations of the Lord Jesus | Christ, unto His Churches, dis- | covering Seeret Offendors and Im- | postors, among them. | — | At Boston Lecture, 14. d. 10. m. 1699," running headlines; last page "Advertisement," of Increase Mather's "Order of the Gospel," between two lines of border pieces.

This title is taken from the tract in the Boston Athenæum; and the imperfect copy in this Library has been the cause of some confusion among bibliographers. Sabin ascribes the authorship both to Increase Mather (XI. 465) in connection with others, and to his son Cotton (XI. 447); and Mr. Sibley (I. 454, III. 69, 74) falls into a similar mistake. Dr. Dexter also, in his "Congregationalism" (pp. 114, 115), confounds the titles. The first part of the pamphlet, as far as page 53, is reprinted in the Magnalia (Book VII. Chap. V. pp. 30-41).

Wednesday | January 1. 1701. | A little before Break-a-day at Boston of the
| Massachusets. 12mo. 1 p.

These verses, in three stanzas, were written by Judge Sewall, who entered in his Diary (II. 27), under date of January 1, 1700-1, that the "Bell-man said these verses a little before Break-a-day, which I printed and gave them." The verses were printed on page 28 of the same volume; and the reprint of another broadside with three additional verses is given with some introductory remarks in the Proceedings (2d series, I. 13, 14) for January, 1884.

The | Young Maus claim | unto the | Sacrament of the | Lords-Supper. | Or,

Green, and J. Allen, | for Samuel Phillips, at the Brick Shop near | the Old Meeting House. 1700. 16mo. pp. 92.

Titlepage wanting; 1-59, "A Defence of Evangelical | Churches, | in | a Soft Answer to what may Offend | the Churches of New-England | in an Hard Attempt against them, | under the Title of, The Doctrine | of Instituted Churches. | And, | a Short Account of the Discourse | about, A Claim to the Lords Table, | here Published and Commended, | as a Treatise worthy of Great | Acceptance in the Churches," signed "Increase Mather" and "Cotton Mather"; 1 p. blank; 61, 62, "Advertisement"; 63, 64, "An Attestation," signed "John Higginson | William Hubbard | Zechariah Symmes Sen. | Samuel Cheever | Nicholas Noyes | Jeremiah Shepard | Joseph Gerrish | Edward Paison"; 65-70, "The Preface | to the | Baptized Youth | come unto Years of Discretion; | and | capable of Examining themselves. | The best Blessings!" by John Quick, running headlines; 71-92, "The | Young Man's Claim | unto the | Sacrament | of the | Lord's Supper."

The titlepage of this work is copied from Sabin (XVI. 198), number 67,164.

At a meeting of the Historical Society, on May 12, 1892 (Proceedings, 2d series, VII. 414, 415), I stated the reasons for supposing that William Brattle was the author of the Almanac for 1694, but by an oversight in the description of the pamphlet in the foregoing list his name was omitted. Without much doubt the Almanac for 1680, mentioned under that year, was made by John Foster, the pioneer printer of Boston, though his name does not appear on the titlepage. He prepared one for 1681, with a similar title, mutatis mutandis, which was printed with the same ornamentation and issued evidently from the same press. The Almanac for 1687 may have been written by William Williams, a graduate of Harvard College in the Class of 1683, who also made one for 1685, on which his name appears as the author. The two Almanacs were printed at the same office, and the general make-up of each is identical with that of the other.

Judge Sewall, in his Diary (II. 263), under date of September 17, 1709, says, "Mr. Green finishes printing Mr. Whiting's Oration," which, perhaps, is the pamphlet mentioned under 1649. The font of type and its general appearance would seem to show that it might have been published in 1709, though Prince, in his Catalogue compiled some years later, refers the date of printing to 1649. Possibly the tract was reprinted in 1709.

SUPPLEMENTARY TITLES.

THE following supplementary titles are found in my own library; and as they are accessible, I append them here to the list of those belonging to the Historical Society.

Surrounded by a wide border line; between the heading and the verses, the following lines, relating to his death by drowning, and an anagram appear:—

*Not by a Fiery Chariot as Elisha was,
But by the Water, which was the outward cause:
And now at Rest with Christ his Saviour dear,
Though he hath left his dear Relations here*

Perhaps this sheet was printed later than 1657.

CAMBRIDGE:

Printed by Samuel Green.

To his Beloved Friends the Inhabitants of G R O T O N.

That it was not a desire to appear in publick, but to answer your requests, gave light to the ensuing Sermons, ye are my witnesses, and that in the publishing of them, I have not endeavoured to varnish and paint them over with flourishes of men-pleasing words; the thing it self may speak: in the reading you shall finde nothing but what was delivered in Preaching. Touching the occasion of them I need not advertise you, you may well enough call to minde the loud voice of speaking providences, which forbad me in such a day to be silent: The sad hand of God which was upon the poor possessed Creature, which produced that on Isai. 26. 9. hath sounded through this Wilderness, but you were eye witnesses of it; the Lord affect your hearts, and give you to learn righteousness. The other two were also upon solemn Occasions, the hand of God upon this Land, and us in particular, bids Ministers to cry aloud; the Lord God hath spoken, who can but Prophecie? I know mans corruption is not willing to be closely dealt withal, but I hope many of you have not so learned Christ. My hearts desire and prayer for you is, that you may be prepared for shaking times, and the nearer they approach the more need have we to be haltened and roused from our loytering. If these poor labours of mine, may help in that great business, I have my ends fully answered; and my desire for you is, that those affections may be blown up again in the reading which were kindled in the preaching; I know I have but a while to be among you, if God please to make me by these, or any other weak endeavours, to be under him instrumental of your eternal good, I shall dye with joy; and so meet you all at the right hand of our Judge in that great day, is the highest ambition of Your unworthy Minister.

"Groton," signed "S. W.," headpiece a line of acorn-shaped border pieces; 1-19, "Jer. 7. 12. | But go ye now unto my Place which is in Shiloh, &c.," and text; 1 p. blank; 21-43, "Isaiah. 26. 9. | When thy Judgements are in the Earth, the | Inhabitants of the World will learn | Righteousness," and text, headpiece, a line of acorn-shaped border pieces, and a similar line inverted; 41-80, "Isaiah 21. 11, 12," in five lines, and text.

Mr. Love in his "Fast and Thanksgiving Days" (p. 516) says that the first of these sermons was delivered on June 16, 1670, and the third, June 13, 1672. The second was preached probably during the winter of 1671-2, and was occasioned by a case of witchcraft at Groton. See Collections (4th series, VIII. 555-570) for a letter written by Mr. Willard to Cotton Mather, describing the case in detail. See also Green's "Groton in the Witchcraft Times" (pp. 7-21). Mr. Brinley had a copy of Willard's book, which I have been told was bought by the Library of Congress; and there is an imperfect one in the library of Harvard College. Across the titlepage of my copy is written the following in Hunting's hand: "Nath^l Hunting E dono amici Jos. Green | 14 April. 1695." At the date of this writing Green was a senior at Harvard College; and Hunting, who had graduated two years previously, was afterward married to Green's sister Mary. Joseph Green was a son of John and Ruth (Mitchelson) Green, and born at Cambridge, on November 24, 1675. He died on November 26, 1715, at Salem Village (now Danvers), where he had been the settled minister for seventeen years. He was my great-great-great-grandfather.

A fac-simile of the titlepage and preface is here given.

tioned in this list, and which also once belonged to Mr. Checkley.
